<sup>26</sup> Then the captain went with the officers and brought them without violence, for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned. <sup>27</sup> And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, <sup>28</sup> saying, “Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this name? And look, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this Man’s blood on us!”

<sup>29</sup> But Peter and the other apostles answered and said: “We ought to obey God rather than men.”

<sup>14</sup> Inasmuch then as the children have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that through death He might destroy him who had the power of death, that is, the devil,
<sup>15</sup> and release those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. (Hebrews 2:14-15)

“And do not fear those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in hell.” (Matthew 10:28)

EPISTEMOLOGY

HOLY BIBLE

All Scripture is God-breathed, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16)

No prophecy of Scripture is of any private interpretation, for prophecy never came by the will of man, but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit. (2 Peter 1:20b-21)

“But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, He will teach you all things, and bring to your remembrance all things that I said to you.” (John 14:26)

“The Scripture cannot be broken” (John 10:35b)

The entirety of Your word is truth (Psalm 119:160a)

Your word is very pure; therefore Your servant loves it. (Psalm 119:140)

“No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other.”

Now, therefore, you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints and members of the household of God, having been built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone (Ephesians 2:19-20)

If the foundations are destroyed, what can the righteous do? (Psalm 11:3)

God created the world in six 24-hour days and is a maximum of 7,685 years ago.

The world developed across millions of years and is 13.6 billion years old.

“No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or else he will be loyal to the one and despise the other.”

Over 50% of evangelical pastors think that the world was less than 10,000 years old. Now when you think about that, that is just hugely embarrassing that over half of our ministers really believe that the universe is only around 10,000 years old. This is scientifically ... nonsense.

"Perhaps the most tragic aspect of denying nature's scientifically established characteristics is that such a denial forces the rejection of timely, compelling evidence for the God of the Bible and for the accuracy and authority of His Word."

There is no conflict between science and the Bible, there is only conflict between some interpretations of the scientific and biblical data.

Just 2% of millennials hold a biblical worldview, lowest among all adults: study

Although 61% of American millennials consider themselves to be Christian, just 2% of them were found to hold a biblical worldview, according to a recent study released by the Cultural Research Center at Arizona Christian University.

A biblical worldview, as previously defined by Barna, includes believing that absolute moral truths exist, and that such truth is defined by the Bible, as well as firm belief in six specific religious views. Those views are that Jesus Christ lived a sinless life; God is the all-powerful and all-knowing Creator of the universe and He stills rules it today; salvation is a gift from God and cannot be earned; Satan is real; a Christian has a responsibility to share their faith in Christ with other people; and the Bible is accurate in all of its teachings.

“When the Son of Man comes, will He really find faithfulness on the earth?” (Luke 18:8b)
